

For Immediate Release
September 16, 2013

Media Contact
Elaine Driscoll (MGC) 617-571-2964
Press release: 13-072

Speakers Bureau Event

Chairman Steve Crosby to Address National Association for Business Economics

Massachusetts Gaming Commission Continues Community Outreach via Speakers Bureau and Participation in Statewide Speaking Engagements

WHO: Massachusetts Gaming Commission Chairman, Steve Crosby; members of the National Association for Business Economics (NABE)

WHAT: Chairman Steve Crosby will introduce a panel discussion on the introduction and implementation of expanded gaming to the Commonwealth with members of the National Association for Business Economics. Chairman Crosby will update attendees on the latest news from MassGaming and provide an overview on the overall progress of the licensing process, as well as the licensing timeline.

Through the establishment of MassGaming's Speakers Bureau, the commission is participating in numerous statewide speaking engagements to keep the public informed of the schedule and process, increase community awareness of the roles and responsibilities of the commission, encourage community involvement and solicit valuable feedback to facilitate an all-inclusive, decision-making process.

WHERE: Federal Reserve Bank of Boston, 600 Atlantic Avenue #100, Boston, MA

WHEN: Friday, September 27, 2013 at 12:00pm

INFO: As the commission strives to ensure that its decision-making and regulatory systems engender the confidence of the public and participants, the MassGaming Speakers Bureau provides an important face-to-face opportunity to communicate directly and facilitate a dialogue with its vast constituency. In order to create the most efficient process, it is suggested that requestors have a minimum audience of 30 attendees and make the request 30 days in advance. To facilitate a Speakers Bureau request, the speaker request form is easily accessible on MassGaming.com.

Massachusetts Gaming Commission