Speaking Engagement Commissioner James McHugh to Address Boston Bar Association

Massachusetts Gaming Commission Continues Public Outreach via Speakers Bureau and Participation in Statewide Speaking Engagements

WHO: Massachusetts Gaming Commission Commissioner, James F. McHugh; representatives from MGM Resorts International, Wynn Resorts Development, Plainridge Park Casino; representatives from Goodwin Procter and members of the Boston Bar Association

WHAT: Commissioner McHugh will provide introductory remarks regarding next steps for the Massachusetts Gaming Commission as well as the state's expanded gaming industry. Commissioner McHugh's remarks will be followed by a panel discussion featuring the state's current licensed gaming operators. For more information on this event, please visit the Boston Bar Association website.

Through the establishment of MassGaming's Speakers Bureau, the commission participates in numerous statewide speaking engagements to keep the public informed of the schedule and process, increase community awareness of the roles and responsibilities of the commission, encourage community involvement and solicit valuable feedback to facilitate an all-inclusive, decision-making process.

WHERE: Boston Bar Association, 16 Beacon Street, Boston, MA

WHEN: Thursday, November 13, 2014 at 5:30pm to 7:00pm

INFO: As the commission strives to ensure that its decision-making and regulatory systems engender the confidence of the public and participants, the MassGaming Speakers Bureau provides an important face-to-face opportunity to communicate directly and facilitate a dialogue with its vast constituency. To facilitate a Speakers Bureau request, the speaker request form is easily accessible on MassGaming.com.
