

MASSACHUSETTS GAMING COMMISSION
WAIVER FOR GAMING VENDOR QUALIFIERS
 Pursuant to 205 CMR 134.04(5)(b)

Upon written petition, the Massachusetts Gaming Commission (Commission) may waive the requirement to be licensed as a gaming vendor qualifier for any person who, in the opinion of the Bureau or Commission, cannot exercise control or provide direction to a gaming vendor or applicant for a gaming vendor license or a holding, intermediary or subsidiary company thereof. Provided, however, a person who is not an institutional investor and who holds more than 5% of the common stock of a company, or holding, intermediary or subsidiary company of such a company may not petition for waiver in accordance with 205 CMR 134.04(5)(a).
