Chairman Crosby to Address

The Massachusetts Building Trades Council Annual Convention

Massachusetts Gaming Commission Continues Community Outreach via Speakers Bureau and Participation in Statewide Speaking Engagements

WHO: Massachusetts Gaming Commission Chairman, Steve Crosby; delegates from the Massachusetts Building Trades Council who represent 74 local unions representing 75,000 men and women all across Massachusetts

WHAT: Chairman Crosby will address delegates from the Massachusetts Building Trades Council at its 94th Convention. Chairman Crosby will update attendees on the latest news from the Massachusetts Gaming Commission and provide an update on the progress of the licensing process.

Through the establishment of MGC's Speakers Bureau, the Commission is participating in numerous statewide speaking engagements to keep the public informed of the schedule and process, increase community awareness of the roles and responsibilities of the Commission, encourage community involvement and solicit valuable feedback to facilitate an all-inclusive, decision-making process.

The Massachusetts Building Trades Council is 93-year-old organizations dedicated to helping working people improve their quality of life. The Council is comprised of 74 member local unions representing over 75,000 working men and women across the state.

WHERE: Radisson Hotel Plymouth Harbor at 180 Water Street, Plymouth, MA

WHEN: Wednesday, March 6, 2013 at 1:00pm

INFO: As the Commission strives to ensure that its decision-making and regulatory systems engender the confidence of the public and participants, the MGC Speakers Bureau provides an important face-to-face opportunity to communicate directly and facilitate a dialogue with MGC's vast constituency. In order to create the most efficient process, it is suggested that requestors have a minimum audience of 30 attendees and make the request 30 days in advance. To facilitate a Speakers Bureau request, the speaker request form is easily accessible on MassGaming.com.
