Meeting Notification

The Massachusetts Gaming Commission to hold Public Meeting

Topics include: Community Mitigation Fund, Approval of House Rules for Category 3 Sports Wagering Operators, Proposed FY24 Research Agenda, Sports Wagering Regulations, and more

WHO: Members of the Massachusetts Gaming Commission including Chair Cathy Judd-Stein and Commissioners Brad Hill, Jordan Maynard, Eileen O'Brien, and Nakisha Skinner

WHAT: The Massachusetts Gaming Commission will hold public meeting #442 on Thursday, March 9, 2023.

After the meeting is called to order, the Commission will review meeting minutes from a previous Massachusetts Gaming Commission meeting held on October 20, 2022.

Following that, the Commission will hear from representatives from the Office of the Massachusetts Attorney General regarding sports wagering regulations.

The Sports Wagering Division will then lead head the next portion of the meeting. That section will cover a status update on a report of advertisement of credit card and pre-paid card use; an update on the implementation of intercept review procedures for Category 3 operators for past due child support and tax obligations; approval of House Rules for Category 3 operators; and operations certificates for the launch of Category 3 operators.

The Investigations and Enforcement Bureau is then set to report on non-compliance with the approved Massachusetts Sports Wagering Catalog, which had been reported to the Commission during a previous public meeting.

Community Affairs will then lead a discussion regarding a request by the City of Medford to repurpose Community Mitigation Funds.

Following that, the Research and Responsible Gaming team will cover the proposed FY24 research agenda.

Commissioner Updates are set to follow, ahead of an anticipated Executive Session to discuss strategy relative to potential litigation related to the employment status and associated circumstances pertaining to a former racing official.
