Commissioner Zuniga to Address Chelsea Chamber of Commerce Latino Business Division

Massachusetts Gaming Commission Continues Community Outreach via Speakers Bureau and Participation in Statewide Speaking Engagements

WHO: Massachusetts Gaming Commission Commissioner, Enrique Zuniga; members of the Chelsea Chamber of Commerce Latino Business Division

WHAT: Commissioner Zuniga will address members of the Chelsea Chamber of Commerce Latino Business Division. The Chelsea Chamber of Commerce Latino Business Division is a group of Latino business owners from the Chelsea, East Boston, Everett and Revere area. Commissioner Zuniga will update attendees on the latest news from the Massachusetts Gaming Commission and provide a status report on the progress of the licensing process.

Through the establishment of MGC's Speakers Bureau, the Commission is participating in numerous statewide speaking engagements to keep the public informed of the schedule and process, increase community awareness of the roles and responsibilities of the Commission, encourage community involvement and solicit valuable feedback to facilitate an all-inclusive, decision-making process.

WHERE: Wyndham Hotel, 201 Everett Ave., Chelsea, MA

WHEN: Monday, February 4, 2013, 6:00pm

INFO: As the Commission strives to ensure that its decision-making and regulatory systems engender the confidence of the public and participants, the MGC Speakers Bureau provides an important face-to-face opportunity to communicate directly and facilitate a dialogue with MGC's vast constituency. In order to create the most efficient process, it is suggested that requestors have a minimum audience of 30 attendees and make the request 30 days in advance. To facilitate a Speakers Bureau request, the speaker request form is easily accessible on MGC's website.
