

Looking to Parlay Your Knowledge of Sports Betting and Gaming into a Career in Helping People?

About the job

GameSense is an award-winning, global leader in supporting safe, healthy play for casino patrons and sports betters. We work at the intersection of sports betting, gaming, public health, and customer service. And we're on a mission to find the next GameSense Advisor to join our team!

We're looking for individuals interested in leveraging their knowledge of sports betting, casino gaming, or customer service experience to provide valuable information, education, and support services around player health and problem gambling. GameSense Advisors staff information centers at the three Massachusetts casinos, serving as the public face for patrons, on-site employees, and community members.

Top GameSense Advisors:

- Are at least 21
- Have knowledge of sports betting gambling, casino games, or the gaming industry
- Want to help keep gambling a safe and entertainment activity
- Are exceptional customer service professionals
- Have excellent conflict resolution and interpersonal skills
- Pride themselves on being approachable, in-person communicators

Individuals from diverse backgrounds, bilingual speakers, or those with experience in teaching, public health, counseling, social work, or addiction services background are a plus.

$58,000 - $63,000, commensurate with experience.

GameSense Advisors receive full medical, dental, and vision benefits and a pension plan.

Sounds like a fit? We'd love to hear from you!
